

Alcohol Policy

According to the regulations all visitors to the Rapalje Zomerfolk Festival under the age of 18 years, no alcohol will be sold to.

At the drink stands, information booth and coin checkout you can get a stamp (after showing your ID) so you can get alcoholic beverages.

Persons whereby the organization can not clearly determine whether this person has reached 18 years of age will be asked to identify themselves with valid legitimatie evidence.

At the request of the Rapalje Zomerfolk Festival staff, security or other qualified professional should an ID evidence be shown so the age can be determined.

Visitors of 18 and older receive a non-transferable stamp. Visitors under 18 will not receive a stamp.

This stamp should be shown when buying liquor. Furthermore, at the request of Rapalje Zomerfolk Festival staff, security or other authorized persons, an ID has to be displayed.

Visitors without a stamp are not allowed to order an alcoholic beverage order, also not for others, and they may also not consume any alcohol at the festival site during the festival.

Visitors without a stamp, who are seen with alcohol will be removed from the premises by the organization.

Visitors who defraud with the stamp will be removed from the premises by the organization.

When the organization finds that a visitor with a stamp (therefore 18+) provides an alcoholic beverage to a visitor without a stamp all those involved will be removed from the premises by the organization.
